While living in South Florida she has served her community through volunteer leadership on the board of Friends of O.U.R. House, St. Coleman Women's Council, and Children's Aid Club. In addition, she has hosted and chaired events, raising nearly $1M for these and various organizations that benefit the children most in need in her community. Most recently, she stepped into the role of Chair to the Pine Crest Founder's Council.

The university has played an important role in her family's success and ability to give back. Because of this, The Virga Family Scholarship was created at UCF. The Virga College of Business Fund was established in 2018. She is currently a member of the Athletic Director's Shareholder Society.
