

James Harhi '97 | Elected Director

James Harhi '97 is an entrepreneur and founder of JFH Technologies LLC, which specializes in family entertainment centers and consulting. Harhi founded and sold three other small businesses and is now a partner at ProParks Attraction Group, which specializes in the amusement industry by owning, operating, and/or consulting for domestic and international clients.

James holds a UCF degree in Interdisciplinary Studies ('97) and has volunteered as a UCF social media ambassador. His wife, Brooke Bloodworth Harhi, holds two UCF degrees in English.