In no event shall this Company engage in any activity which would be contrary to the purposes and activities: (1) permitted to be engaged in by any organization the activities of which are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; or (2) of an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the applicable rules and regulations thereunder.

The Company shall not engage, nor shall any of its funds, property, or income be used, in carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, nor shall the Company participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, nor shall the Company engage in subversive activities. No compensation shall be paid to any officer, director, or trustee of the Company or substantial contributor to it except as a reasonable allowance for services actually rendered to or for the Company.

The Company is organized to serve public interests. Accordingly, it shall not be operated for the benefit of private interests.

All Members of the Company shall be organizations which are exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or wholly owned or controlled instrumentalities of a State or Political Subdivision ("Instrumentality"). No membership interest or asset of the Company may be transferred (directly or indirectly) to an organization or individual other than an organization qualified as exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or an Instrumentality, unless such transfer is an exchange for fair market value of the assets or interest being transferred. In the event that the sole Member of the Company shall cease to be qualified as exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, then such Member shall arrange to transfer its interest in the Company to another entity qualified as exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or an Instrumentality, within ninety (90) days of losing its exempt status.

ARTICLE IX – AMENDMENTS
