

Cathy McCaw-Engelman | Elected Director

Cathy McCaw-Engelman worked much of her life in home health care management, prescription management and medical translation and, for more than a decade, owned Optimal Translation and Transportation Services, providing translation and transportation to clients nationwide. Since retiring in 2011, she has remained involved in the well-being of others through philanthropy. She is a member of the Orlando Museum of Art's Council of 101 and, in 2017, established the Catherine McCaw-Engelman and Family Cancer Research Collaborative Fund in honor of her sister who lost a battle with cancer earlier that year.

Cathy involvement consist of being a member of the Leadership Gifts Chair Bishop Moore High School, UCF Foundation Board, St. Margaret Mary Catholic School, Support Our Scholars, and the Catholic Diocese of Orlando.

Cathy's late father, Andrew McCaw, was a UCF donor in the 1990's to the Burnett House.

