

Dana Patton '93 | Secretary

Dana M. Patton is a former executive recruiter at Tyler & Company, an executive healthcare recruiting firm, who now serves as a community leader and philanthropist. She holds positions on several charitable and service organization boards, including Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Friends, Ribbons of Hope, and the Holy Innocents' Episcopal School.

She and her husband, R. David Patton, '93, established an endowed scholarship at UCF, The President's Leadership Endowment.

Dana is an alumni of UCF and holds a BS in Social Science Education.

Dana has served on the UCF Foundation Board since 2019 and has been active on the Executive and Governance Committee.

Dana is also an avid tennis player and coaches' tennis at Holy Innocents' Episcopal School.

